Found a Trail.

"Nick Carter," the celebrated blood hound belonging to Capt. Mullikin, of Wilmore, that was brought here to try and locate the person that burned Sam Clay's barn, took a trail which led to the pike fence where a horse had been hitched. He went over the same trail several times, which was satisfactory to Mr. Clay.

Garth Fund Beneficiaries.

At the meeting of the Bourbon Fiscal Court Saturday Hon. E. M. Dickson read the annual report of the Garth Fund Commissioners, of which he is a member. The report reviewed the work of the beneficiaries for the past year and recommended the retaining of fifteen of those who received the benefit last year and also added the names of fourteen new applicants to the list. The old beneficiaries are as follows with the amount that each receives: Bruce Adair, $50; J. Q. Frakes, $75; Oie Holler, $100; Joe Hart, $50; Alex Hawes, $75; Ed Grace, $65; Jesse Kennedy, $50; John Lytle, $50; Frank Lenihan, $50; B. H. Linville, $100; Talbott Madison, $75; W. A. Grimes, $100; Graham Edgar, $125; Daniel Talbott, $125; A. J. Skillman, $50.

The new beneficiaries are: Clarence Talbott, $100; Clarence Bell, $50; Holt Daniel, $60; James Huaffr, $50; Frank Johnson, $25; William Leo Keller, $50; Weaver Neal, $65; James Laird, $50; Frank O'Neal, $100; Harry Stivers, $100; Thomas Speakes, $65; Woodford Dick, $65; Chester Wood, $50, and Harry Overly, $40.

Hon. E. M. Dickson, who has been one of the commissioners for the past sixteen years and a beneficiary of the fund himself when a young man in college, tendered his resignation to the court. The court, through Judge Dundon, regretted that he saw fit to resign and asked that he withdraw his resignation. When the matter was taken up Mr. Dickson was unanimously re-elected, as were Hon. Claude M. Thomas and John T. Collins, the other members of the commission.

Bad Wreck in L. & N. Yards.

With a train of seventeen loaded cars and running at considerable speed, North bound freight No. 76, ran into an open switch at the junction of the Livingston and Lexington branches of the L. & N., in this city, at 3:15 Saturday morning, and crashed into a yard engine with five empty cars standing on the siding, causing the worst wreck in the local yards for several years.

Three trainmen and one switchman were injured and it is marvelous that several were not killed. None of them are fatally injured and the list includes the following:

Ed. Brown, cut on lip, ankle sprained and cut on head.

Ed. Peddigo, head severely bruised.

J. F. Scruggs, numerous slight bruises.

The accident was due to the air refusing to work on the freight train, an angle cock four cars from the engine having gotten out of place in some unknown manner, and the train being heavily loaded with coal and lumber. Engineer Riddell could not control it coming down the heavy grade. Riddell signalled for a clear track just as he started down grade, but a switch to a siding was open and the yard engine in charge of Engineer Claire was standing there. Claire, it is said, heard the signal, but seemed dazed and before he had time to recover the freight dashed in view and in the smash-up Claire was caught at the throttle, but his fireman, Buford Gormley, jumped. Neither were injured, though there was barely enough space left in the cab to admit the body of the engineer.

The compact was terrific. The freight engine ploughed into the yard engine with such force as to put the latter in a V shape, the rear of the tender going up in the air and the pilot doing likewise, the cab and part of the tender were buried into the ground five feet. The empty cars were stood on ends and piled upon one another, and the loaded freight was all derailed. Both engines were a mass of ruins, but the one attached to the freight suffered the least.

Friends of Dan Riddell are pleased to learn that he was not in fault in this instance. About five months ago he forgot orders and was responsible for a wreck. He had been laid off since and this was his first through run since being reinstated. Riddell is a fine young fellow and a good engineer and stuck to his engine, doing all in his power to prevent the wreck.

Meeting of the Republican Committee.

The Republican County Committee met at the Windsor Hotel pursuant to the call of Secretary Wyatt Thompson to take action upon the resignation of Chairman W. L. Yerkes. Nearly a full attendance of the members were on hand. Secretary Thompson called the meeting to order and laid the matter of Mr. Yerkes' resignation before them for whatever action they saw fit to take. This precipitated a lively debate, some wanting the resignation accepted, while others were in favor of having Mr. Yerkes to reconsider his action and agree to remain at the head of the committee. A motion was made to accept the resignation and was defeated by the close vote of 9 to 10. A committee was then appointed, composed of W. A. Thomason, J. W. Larkin and Clarence Huff, to wait upon Mr. Yerkes and inform him of the committee's action. Presently the members of the committee returned, accompanied by Mr. Yerkes, who in a neat speech stated his reasons for tendering his resignation and thanked the committee for the confidence reposed in him, and consented to withdraw his resignation and continue to serve the party.
